El Rey De La Papa Asada, located at L, Av. Pablo Livas 900-S in Guadalupe, Nuevo León, Mexico, is a culinary haven renowned for its delectable offerings that blend traditional Mexican flavors with a modern twist. The restaurant's menu is a testament to the rich culinary heritage of the region, featuring a variety of dishes that cater to diverse palates.

Signature Dishes

Tacos de Carne Asada: These tacos are a crowd favorite, featuring tender, grilled beef served in soft corn tortillas. Accompanied by grilled onions, avocado, pico de gallo, and a choice of green or red salsa, they offer a burst of flavors in every bite.

Papa Asada: A standout dish, the baked potato is loaded with melted cheddar cheese, sour cream, and a generous portion of carne asada. This hearty meal is both comforting and satisfying.

Frijoles Charros Especiales: A traditional Mexican bean dish, these charro beans are cooked with bacon, chorizo, and spices, delivering a smoky and savory flavor that complements any main course.

Tacos de Barbacoa: Slow-cooked beef barbacoa is served in tacos, offering a rich and tender meat experience that melts in your mouth.

Salchicha Asada Especial: Grilled sausage served with onions and salsa, providing a smoky and spicy kick to your meal.

Hamburguesa de Trompo: A unique take on the classic burger, this dish features trompo-style pork, adding a flavorful twist to the traditional hamburger.
